Folks:

The weather was just about as predicted with winds starting in the south and clocking all the way around to the north but with about half of the strength that was promised. Frustrating. But hey! It wasn't raining and we had a good showing of 13 boats.

What a joy to watch Kelly Martin sail. I should have parked my boat and studied his technique. A true maestro.

Enjoy

Larry Stiles

I thought it was cool to have thirteen skippers from eleven different cities sailing twelve different designs.
