Folks:

The weather? Like an old girl friend from a previous life: Beautiful to look at but a challenge to deal with. When we arrived there was no wind at all but at 10:10 it appeared so suddenly you could almost hear the switch being thrown. After oscillating between SW and NW it eventually settled out of the NW and by 2:00 was blowing a very nice 6 to 7 mph. Bliss. After 24 races we were truly ready for some lunch. This day was marked by the introduction of 2 new boats: a new V8 for Kelly Martin and a Lintel for Dave Glassow of Oregon. Enjoy. Larry S.
