

Seattle MYC's – Regatta #6 (8/16/14)

Gene Coulon Memorial Beach Park on Lake Washington in Renton, WA

Bob Wells Reporting & J. Warren Brower Scoring:

All the ingredients were in nicely place for another great summer sailing day, except weed was screwing it up. Fortunately after a few races where the size of the weed you were dragging determined your speed and a few delays to rake it away from our waters edge, most of it just drifted away. It is amazing how fast weed can invade and how fast it can drift away. Quality racing then commenced that was relatively weed free for the rest of our day. Steady light NW winds with light to moderate chop were the conditions, and Joe Damico had the upwind edge that made the difference.

Excused absences were given to: Kurt Wells - work intervened, Ron Blackledge - golfers back, Ron Hornung - Viking Days. They missed some good sailing, and a fun time at our Irish pub.
