Folks:

The weather was stunning, clear, bright and cold. A good group of sailors, nine in all, were assembled with boats well prepared. Only good sailors need apply because the wind was dealing some tough hands.

Gusty, shifty winds averaging around ten MPH and topping out with face plant force out of the SE made reaching every mark a character building experience.

Good sailors, tricky wind and a reasonable course made for a great day of racing.

Enjoy. Larry Stiles
