Folks:
 Even a beautiful day can be very challenging wind wise. Things started out with variable winds, very much out of the west, probably no more that 4 MPH. We listened to the music and tried to dance the dance but some of us just could not get with the rhythm. Long about 2:00 PM, or race 16, depending on how you were looking at it, the wind clocked more to the north and just about doubled in intensity and everything fell into place. It was like getting a reward for studying hard. We finished 23 races by curfew and everyone went home happy, cold but happy. The fun was spread out though the fleet as there were only a few people that didn't win a race.
 Hats off to Jerry. It didn't seem to matter what record landed on the turntable; he was always ready with the right moves.
 Enjoy.
 Larry Stiles
