Folks:

This place is a treasure. Just when you think you've seen all that Cranberry can show you it comes up with a new combination. Lately we've been blessed with No. 2 and 3 rig days that have challenged and rewarded.

Today however, was a day for finesse. Winds averaging 4.4 MPH came out of the SE to entertain and then would back suddenly to the East to test.

Six sailors competed and put 23 races under their belts. Racing was precise and very intense. There were only 2 instances of a sailor not finishing a race and everyone had at least one bullet.

Enjoy. We sure did.
