Sailors,

What a great start to a sailing day with wind out of the west at 4-6 MPH. We were commenting that our weather has been like southern California. Well, so much for that, it went downhill from there and by race 8 it was spitting and by race 11 it was raining. None of us had our transmitter covers so we used what we had to cover up. As the rain came, the wind died, so we gave up. But, great racing up to that point. See you all Sunday when it is supposed to be hot but with a chance of thunder showers. We will see!

Regards,
Mike Doherty
