Folks:

I know there was a spectacular football game going on, but those who did not get themselves down to Rosario Beach this Sunday past missed a truly epic day of sailing.

Picture this: A pier, ramp and a floating dock all laid out virtually parallel to the prevailing SE wind. Now let's crank that wind up to an average of over 17 MPH with gust to 35 MPH. We should have been in number 3 but we stayed in number 2 rig for the day. The course was a simple box set up with a leeward gate but with the lay of the land creating strange undulations in the wind, going to upwind was like sailing into another world. It was a total blast.

Do not forget the DPMYC Christmas Party and 91th Birthday Bash for my hero Ray Fiedler. It's being held at Ray's woodland hide out on the res overlooking the channel.

Please RSVP with either Ray at rayf@frontier.com or Julian at usaiom40@gmail.com .

Enjoy.
