Folks:

I've always said that I would trade some sunshine for some wind, and that's about how it turned out. We had just a few drops of rain and were served up fairly steady winds which when combined with the Rosario location produced a regatta that was both challenging and satisfying. What ever worked for you in the last race probably wouldn't in the next. We sailed until the wind pooped out and were able to get in 16 races. Prime.

We had folks coming from a long ways off, including Steve from Tacoma and Daryl and Ryan from Fife, which made for a great field indeed.

Enjoy.

Larry Stiles
