Folks:

Lite but steady winds with no rain and no crab fishermen. A simple box course with subtle but not evil wind shifts. A great view from almost 20 ft up making the whole scene look as pretty as a post card.

True the waitresses with hot and cold drinks never showed up but they'd have just gotten in the way.

The only thing that would have improved the situation would have been more sailors.

True that 6 sailors made for some spectacular racing, but the guilt of having this all to ourselves is really becoming a burden.

What we needed was at least 6 more sailors. Come on out and save us. Therapy is too expensive so the only thing we can do is to keep sailing.

Enjoy.
