DPMYC Sunday 06/12/2016

Hi Folks,

A picture perfect day at the Bowman Bay Pier. Six smiling sailors were rewarded with blue skies and temperatures about 70 with a predictable, steady 6.3 max light breeze from the west.... It arrived a little after our start time.... We paused the races while Julian gave Jacks boat a good tune that put jack up in the front group for more fun races. The very few weeds in the course were catching everyone at some time, so everyone had a chance to jump in the front of the fleet when it was their turn to keep a clean keel. Good competitive sailing... Joe hopped the ferry and showed us his squeeze move around the weather mark... a talented sailor and always fun to sail with as he showed us the way today.....

Enjoy,
Rich
