Folks:

Every so often we have a regatta that reminds me once again why I got into this game and why I remain committed to it. What a great regatta. We could have use a few more boats. So what I need to do is to communicate the essence of the day.

We had it all. Steady winds, 6 to 8 MPH, mostly out of the west allowed us to set up a course to the south running parallel to the pier. We had bright sun with scattered clouds, enough to remind me that I need to use that sun screen.

We ran 12 races and they were all two lappers. Joe, you should have been there. This is one of the very best venues on the planet.

Get yourself up here.

Enjoy

Larry
