Folks:

The third of the August Wednesday series is in the books and it presented weather very reminiscent of last Sunday, very unsettled wind until noonish and then lite and variable, mostly out of the West.

But there were no lulls and the weeds were not too bad. Jerry did a good job of clearing them out single handed and we were rewarded with some first class racing, followed up with beer, chips and killer salsa.

Thanks to Steve for handling the buoys, all the guys that wrestled with the dinghy and Trish for supporting truth, justice and the American way.

Enjoy.

Larry

PS Barry's new woodie is really starting to work. LS
