Folks:

The wind direction shifted just enough to be interesting but the changes in velocity were enough to cause cardiac arrest. Fourteen boats and not enough wind to go around made for some great tactical racing though at times it was like hungry doges fighting over a Big Mac.

The people were digin' it though. Fourteen boats started and finished every race. Good show.

Many thanks to all the folks that helped with scoring, dinking and beer and chips. The only way to fly.

Enjoy.
