

Coastal Cup 2017 Final Results Barry Fox reporting.

The series is on the books now for this year. Generally, a good year of sailing at all of the locations with pretty good winds most of the day at each site chosen. A short meeting after the event today showed that the feeling is to do it all again next year with maybe just a few tweaks but more or less the same format, locations and timing. Stay tuned.

A thanks to everyone who supported the series in one way or the other. A few people stepped aside on particular days to assume some race committee duties and they have been given an average of their other scores to compensate them for their yeoman duty.

The listing attached to this posting is for the actual series standings of everyone who entered the series. You can see that a very few actually put the miles in to be at every one of the events. So, there is the challenge to everyone for next year, get to all events. Maybe special recognition to our foreign entry, Jerry Brower. He shows having missed two events but you should know that the first event he missed was because he was out of the country in France attending a little event called the World Championship Regatta. The second time he was in Kingston, ON attending the Eastern Regional Championship. I'd say he earned his second place quite well.

Following pressing POST on this item I will do one more posting with the overall results that include everyone who attended at least one event this year and we recorded their scores anyway, so you can see that about 40 skippers sailed in at least one of these events.
