Folks:

Better late than never. There was so much swapping of boats that not much importance should be attached to who was sailing what.

Except for Rich Cushing and No. 31. Good job.

It was one of those rare spring days when the wind lined up perfectly with the north side of the pier and stayed steady for the correct 4 hour span.

It was wonderful.

Enjoy.

Larry

PS. I will not be sailing this Sunday as I will be taking my grandson to Pullman for his introductory visit to WSU.

Astrophysics no less. LS
