Folks:

A light but steady westerly laid itself out along the north side of our pier like Hedy Lamarr on a beach towel. An absolute vision, the more you explore the more you learn.

I'm having trouble trying to remember a more satisfying day of racing.

Thanks to the Becketts for the beer and to Trish the book keeping and the dinghy wranglers for setting up a perfect course.

And to think we get to doing again on Sunday.

Enjoy

Larry
