Folks:

The weather was fine to look at but a real trial to sail in.

We had sunshine and weeds, lots of weeds.

We had wind, sometimes a little then once in a while, a lot and coming from any of three popular directions.

At about One o'clock though it settled down and showed us a westerly that was strong and true.

Good to see seldom seen Lucas and Doug.

Enjoy.

PS. I suspected that this might happen. Plans have been made for the forth and I will need to drag myself to Big Lake to stuff myself with steak and potato salad and watch the fire works. Someone has to do it. LS
