Folks:

As a punishment for his hubris, King Sisyphus was made to endlessly roll a huge boulder up a steep hill only to watch in dismay as it rolled back down again.

The maddening nature of the punishment was reserved for King Sisyphus due to his arrogant belief that his cleverness surpassed that of Zeus himself.

As it was written, so it was done.

Lots of sun with light and shift winds called for demanding concentration. Luckily weeds were not much of a problem.

Enjoy
