Larry Stiles reporting:

Folks:

We suffered through light winds, an ebbing tide and menacing weeds until 3:00 PM at which point we called a halt with 11 races complete.

As luck would have it the wind had just started to gain traction and the weeds were being blown back onto the shore, but our long distance commuters, some of whom had ferry reservations, had to pack up and leave. Sad.

The rest of us stayed and got in 3 more righteous races to finish off the day on a very high note.

It's interesting; with an 11 boat fleet, if you had to leave or dnf'ed for any reason you really got hammered.

Enjoy.

Larry
