

DF 95 Fall Series 2023 – Nov 18th Report

By Bob Wells

Some days you don't want the regatta to end because it is so much fun. Other days the wind is nonexistent, and you have to wiggle the rudder, like David Jensen blue number 68 is doing here, to get your boat to move. Thankfully, wind this light for this long is rare. We had 14 skippers but no scores today. Still, it was a beautiful late fall day with lots of sun and some late fall color still hanging on...

The last races in this series are December 2 & 9 – same time & place.
